Prayer before an examination Dear Lord, as I take this exam, I thank you that my value is not based on my performance, but on your great love for me. Come into my heart so that we can walk through this time together. Help me, not only with this test, but with the many tests of life that will come my way. As I take this exam, bring back to my mind everything I have studied and be gracious with what I may have overlooked. Help me to remain focused and calm, confident in the facts and in my ability, And firm in the knowledge that no matter what happens today, you are there with me. AMEN

TRINITY SUNDAY
11th June 2017

God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness

We celebrate the communion of love that is God and in which we are all called to share. Rublev's icon of the Trinity, depicted on this page, shows the open fourth side of the table. This is our place: we are invited to share in the kindness and love of God.

God himself speaks to Moses his own self-definition: God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness. In return Moses bows in adoration, and humbly asks God to forgive the faults of the people and become their God. (First Reading).

The Gospel speaks of God as our Father who so loved our world that he sent Jesus to live and die as one of us. St Paul (Second Reading) ends his second letter to the Corinthians with words of encouragement and blessing in the name of the Trinity. The Psalms use the words of Daniel to praise and give thanks to God: to you glory and praise for ever more. In the stillness of my prayer, I ponder the mystery of God made man for me. I too may praise God: to you be glory for ever!

Thank you to Fr Liam from Tabor who has kindly agreed to celebrate all the Masses this weekend.

Funeral Masses: Thank you to our parishioners who regularly come along to Funeral Masses held in our churches. It is a valuable ministry to support grieving parishioners with your prayers and joining in with the hymns and responses of the Mass when often those attending a funeral are not able to do so. Those parishioners who are able to offer this support are much appreciated by our grieving families and by the priest celebrating the funeral Mass. Thank you for offering this important Ministry of Consolation.
